Ishpeming, Aug. 30 (Special).—Mr. Walters, super-intendent of the Lake Angeline mines, having shown the striking miners that the company could last chance to return to work. They asked permis-

PERRY'S ESCAPE.

DR. ALLISON AND EX-KEEPER HOPKINS, OF THE ASYLUM, WITNESSES FOR THE PROSECUTION. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 39.-An examination of Miss Amelia R. Haswell, the Troy missionary, who is accused of complicity in the escape of Oliver Curtis Perry from the Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane, was held in the County Courthouse before Recorder Odell this morning. Calvin Keech and Walter Farrington represented Miss Haswell, and District-Attorney George Wood and Charles Morschauser the prosecution. Miss Has-well received telegrams this morning from W. H. Rowe, Gilbert Deer, Jr., H. D. Schoenmaker, Justus Miller and Lewis E. Curley, each of whom offered to go Miss Haswell's ball, whatever the amount be. Mr. Keech entered a plea of not guilty on behalf of the prisoner. Miss Haswell remains perfectly calm while the warrant was read, and simply turned to her aunt, Mrs. King, and the Rev Mr. Warren, who accompanied the missionary to this city from Troy, and her face brightened up

Dr. Allison, of the asylum, said he did not know of his own knowledge that Miss Haswell, throug ex-Keeper William Hopkins, conveyed to Perry the keys which gave the train-robber his liberty. When asked what basis he placed his knowledge upon the witness said upon the fact that Perry had esthat Hopkins had received jewelry daped; that Hopkins had received jewelry from Miss Haswell; that the jewelry was recovered in a pawnshop, and that the keys for the escape were furnished Perry by Hopkins. During all these statements Miss Haswell leaned forward from her chair, and, with one hand placed behind her ear, listened attentively by the testioner. In Allien and that attentively to the testimony. Dr. Allison said that Miss Haswell was a frequent visitor to the hospita

The ex-keeper, William N. Hopkins, then took the stand. He is a big strapping fellow, weighing nearly three hundred pounds. When asked if the District Attorney had promised him immunity, he said he had. Some time during August, 1994 Hopkins said, he mailed a letter to Miss Haswell from Perry, without the knowledge of the hospital authorities. "In the letter Perry, told Miss Haswell that I could be trusted, and if she sent me the Jewelry, I would let him out," said Hopkins.

This statement caused Miss Haswell to utter an exclamation of surprise, and she turned to the Rev. Mr. Warren to deny the statement. The witness said he turned two rings and a watch into money. When Perry wanted to escape Hopkins put him off from time to time. Hopkins said Miss Haswell told him to sell the Jewelry and get the money; he destroyed the letters he received from Miss Haswell. "In the letters," he said, "she told me where to go in New-York to dispose of the property, and she said the watch might be identified. She told me to get rid of the watch and said the rings were worth $50 to $60 apiece. She also said she hoped I would be true to my word and let Perry go."

Mr. Keech asked to have the Court direct the District Attorney to produce the letters which were written by Miss Haswell, who, he said, had been outrageously misrepresented. The District Attorney declined to do so, saying that they did not bear upon the testimony already given.

The examination was adjourned until Saturday, September 7, at 2 p. m. Miss Haswell was released on $1,000 bail.

that it is my opinion that brick pavements are not suitable for heavy traffic. This conclusion of his is not warranted by any statements from me, and I suggest that you publish this in justice to the taxpayers and myself.

The pavement on East-ave, to which he referred, is by no means a failure. It has stood a traffic of about fifty tons per day, per foot in width, for four years, and is in good condition for many years yet. There is nothing in our experience to warrant saying that it would be impossible to construct a brick pavement which would successfully carry a very heavy traffic.

Kingston, N. Y., Aug. 30 (Special) .- A serious accident occurred here to-day to Stephen Kelsey, son of Clarence Kelsey, president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, of New-York. To-day 2714, as some friends were expected on the West Shore train at noon, and the family with their guests drove down to the station to meet them. The occupants of the carriage heard him scream, but before the horses could be stopped the little fellow was so tightly wedged in the wheel that it had to be removed from the axle before he could be extricated.
